This Week's Program

Jennifer Mitchell, Ph. D.

Office of Communications

St. Johns River Water Management District

As a part of Rotary International's March focus on Water & Sanitation, guest speaker, Dr. Jennifer Mitchell, Public Communications Coordinator for the St. Johns River Water Management District, will provide an update on the organization and its efforts to protect Florida's most valuable resource - its waterways. Learn how you can be a part of this effort and create a lasting ripple throughout our community and state.

Blueberry Festival Volunteer Opportunity!*March 28th - 31st*3050 Formosa Garden Blvd., Kissimmee, FL 34747

The Florida Blueberry Festival is moving to Kissimmee and they have offered us a wonderful opportunity to support Rotary Youth Exchange 6980! We are looking for adults over the age of 21 to serve beer at the Blueberry Festival. All proceeds will go to the RYE 6980 and the students who are a part of this program. Please select at least one shift (or more if you like) to take part of this incredibly fun event! And please be sure to note your t-shirt size in the Comments. (T-shirts cannot be guaranteed for anyone signed up after Wednesday, March 14.) Meet new people while working alongside other Rotarians. Enjoy free all-day admission to the festival on the day of your shift.

Is it fun?

March is Water and Sanitation Month

Graduate With Dignity Raffle

For the 2018-2019 school year, the Lake Mary Rotary hopes to donate enough money to support more than 20 graduating seniors

Raffle tickets are $10 each.

Prizes

SeaWorld – 2 ticket – Value $160

St. John's Rivership – 3 Hour Lunch for 2 - $113 Value

Publix Gift Basket – Value $200

Date Night – Value Over $140

Dine Lake Mary – Value Over $580

The Dine Lake Mary will contain various gift cards from the Taste of Lake Mary participating Restaurants. Up to 15 restaurants have donated gift cards toward the Graduate with Dignity raffle.

The vendors also donated a second gift card to go into a Vendor drawing where the winning Restaurant will receive the gift cards from the other participants. They can then use these to hand out to their employees for a job well done. We have received positive feedback from the vendors on the idea this year.

Raffle tickets will be available at Thursday's meeting for those who are not able to make it to the Taste Monday evening.
