The Park Lane Place development on International Parkway in Lake Mary has quickly brought many new and old favorites to the community. The commercial plaza features an array of national and local restaurants and services. To gain some insight on a few of the businesses that recently debuted in the development, three business owners and operators will join us for a special panel discussion. Mike, Daniel, and Joshua will share the struggles and triumphs of establishing their business and what they hope to bring to the Lake Mary community. Come with any questions you may have for these business leaders! This week's program will focus on Rotary
