Club of Lake MaryThis Week's Program*Christopher Anderson
Supervisor of ElectionsSeminole County Supervisor of Elections Office

As a dedicated husband, father, combat veteran and accomplished law enforcement professional, Chris Anderson now serves as the current Supervisor of Elections representing Seminole County. Since his appointment to the position by Governor Ron DeSantis in January, Chris has brought several new and innovative ideas to the Elections Office. Prior to this role, Chris served as Chief Investigations Officer for the Seminole County Tax Collector's Office as well as Deputy Sheriff for the Seminole County Sheriff's Office. He believes in leading with integrity and working hard to win and during this week's program he will share about his personal journey and his plans as Supervisor of Elections. In Chris's presentation, you will see Rotary's core values of service, integrity and leadership shine through.

Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.
