Alisha Stokes and Kim Cleek of the Orlando Health Heart Institute will share vital knowledge for saving lives. This condensed HeartSmarts course will include a hands-only CPR training as well as a choking response demo.

Alisha Stokes, RN, BSN, PCCN,
CCCC
Corporate Chest Pain
Coordinator, Orlando Health
Orlando Health Heart Institute

Kimberly Cleek, BSN, RN, CEN
Clinical Coordinator,
Emergency Department
Orlando Regional Medical Center/Orlando Health

Alisha Stokes began her nursing career as an emergency room nurse at Spartanburg Regional Hospital after completing her BSN at the University of North Alabama. Her compassion to patient safety and exceptional nursing care led Alisha to quickly develop her nursing skills. Her work as a clinical staff nurse eventually progressed to a nurse preceptor, charge nurse, and nurse manager. She currently holds the position of Corporate Chest Pain Coordinator for Orlando Health where she most recently successfully led the system-wide American College of Cardiology Accreditation project. Alisha is very passionate to promote heart healthy lifestyles and improve cardiovascular health outcomes. She is married with one child and enjoys working out and leading a healthy lifestyle herself.

Kimberly (Kim) Cleek began her nursing career at Orlando Health in 1989. She has worked at Orlando Regional Medical Center since graduating from Valencia Community College, spending the last 25 years as a staff nurse in the Emergency Department. After obtaining her BSN from the University of Texas at Arlington, she was promoted to ED Clinical Coordinator. This position has allowed her to pursue her passion for patient/community health education and nursing excellence. She lives in Longwood and has two children in college.

Is it fun?
